Category Description

A collection of six engaging fictional books will take children on a journey with each doll character in her respective country. You will be introduced to inspiring and empowering girls who live in various countries around the world. Meet Vivienne™ from France, Amahle™ from South Africa, Tatiana™ from Russia, Mei Ling™ from China, Marcela™ from Argentina and Tiffany™ from the United States.

Each book will have a fun, culturally relevant fictional story that has been beautifully illustrated, and a special non-fiction back of book which will teach children words in the different languages, facts about the culture, landmarks and monuments, as well as currency, cultural celebrations, and a brief history of the country. The books will educate children on different cultures and traditions around the world.

Book Description

Marcela™ in Argentina

When her parents leave town for a trip, Marcela stays behind in Buenos Aires, the capital of Argentina, with her tía (aunt), who owns a famous dance studio. Marcela has been taking dance classes there ever since she learned to walk, and now she is preparing for the annual Tango Dance Festival. But when her dance partner breaks his arm, Marcela rushes to find someone to replace him. Luckily she meets Mateo, a young fútbol (soccer) player who is willing to learn the fancy footwork to help Marcela, her aunt and the tango kids. But there are only two weeks left to practice the steps, and no one is sure if the kids will be able to pull off the show.
