Category Description

A collection of six engaging fictional books will take children on a journey with each doll character in her respective country. You will be introduced to inspiring and empowering girls who live in various countries around the world. Meet Vivienne™ from France, Amahle™ from South Africa, Tatiana™ from Russia, Mei Ling™ from China, Marcela™ from Argentina and Tiffany™ from the United States.

Each book will have a fun, culturally relevant fictional story that has been beautifully illustrated, and a special non-fiction back of book which will teach children words in the different languages, facts about the culture, landmarks and monuments, as well as currency, cultural celebrations, and a brief history of the country. The books will educate children on different cultures and traditions around the world.

Book Description

Vivienne™ in France

Vivienne lives in Paris, the capital of France, and one of the world's most beautiful cities. She loves to cook and eat vegetables—not just any vegetables, though, but ones that grow in surprising shapes and bright colors on her grandpa's farm. On her days off from school, the nine-year-old helps him sell his produce at the market near the Eiffel Tower. One day, Vivienne enters a contest to become the host of a popular kids' television cooking show, where she hopes to spread the word about her grandpa's special vegetables. In order to win, however, she must find the right partner in the kitchen and choose the tastiest recipe. When challenges await her, Vivienne must face each one to make her cooking dream come true, or else lose the contest altogether.
