Category Description

A collection of six engaging fictional books will take children on a journey with each doll character in her respective country. You will be introduced to inspiring and empowering girls who live in various countries around the world. Meet Vivienne™ from France, Amahle™ from South Africa, Tatiana™ from Russia, Mei Ling™ from China, Marcela™ from Argentina and Tiffany™ from the United States.

Each book will have a fun, culturally relevant fictional story that has been beautifully illustrated, and a special non-fiction back of book which will teach children words in the different languages, facts about the culture, landmarks and monuments, as well as currency, cultural celebrations, and a brief history of the country. The books will educate children on different cultures and traditions around the world.

Book Description

Tiffany™ in New York

Tiffany's dream comes true when she is cast as the lead actress in a Broadway musical about a princess with magical powers. But with all of the excitement comes the hard work of juggling schoolwork, play rehearsals, and a strict director. When Tiffany cannot remember her lines of dialogue, she also develops a bit of stage fright. To overcome her fear of performing on stage, she visits her favorite places in New York City, such as Central Park and the Statue of Liberty, where she has fun and feels like herself again. But can Tiffany remember all of her lines in time for opening night? Will she gain back all of her confidence?
