A collection of six engaging fictional books will take children on a journey with each doll character in her respective country. You will be introduced to inspiring and empowering girls who live in various countries around the world. Meet Vivienne™ from France, Amahle™ from South Africa, Tatiana™ from Russia, Mei Ling™ from China, Marcela™ from Argentina and Tiffany™ from the United States.

Each book will have a fun, culturally relevant fictional story that has been beautifully illustrated, and a special non-fiction back of book which will teach children words in the different languages, facts about the culture, landmarks and monuments, as well as currency, cultural celebrations, and a brief history of the country. The books will educate children on different cultures and traditions around the world.

Book Description

Amahle™ in South Africa

Amahle is a young girl living in South Africa. When a school project asks each student in her class to figure out what he or she wants to be when they grow up, Amahle sets off on an unforgettable adventure to find the answer. Along the way, she meets Kahya, an injured baby elephant who was rescued from the wild. Amahle and the baby elephant instantly like one another, and she wants to keep the wild animal safe at the clinic. Soon after, however, Amahle realizes she must help the baby elephant look for her family in the wild. In the process, she also discovers her true passion and talents.
